1c Background and answers (Level C)

Number lines

Objective
This unit should help you to understand decimal notation in everyday contexts.

Technique
Decimals can be used when whole numbers are either too big, or not precise enough. Decimals are sorted on place value, in the same way as whole numbers.

Answers to questions in Worksheet 1C
Q1. Basutana
Q2. Skukuza
Q3. Cape Town
Q4. R0,05910 ml
Q5. The Big Wheel

An example showing how to work out the answer:
Use Q2: Mrs Soko checked her paper to see which of her grandchildren was enjoying the most sunshine on holiday. Durban had 4.7 hours yesterday, Cape Town had 5.8 hours, and Skukuza had 4.75 hours. Which place was sunniest?
When the decimals are not the same length, just attach 0s to the shorter decimals until the decimals are all the same length.
Arrange the decimal numbers in a column, lining up the decimal commas. Start at the left. 4 > 5, so Cape Town is not the sunniest. Go to the next column to the right for Durban and Skukuza only. 7 > 7, so we cannot decide between them. Go to the next column right: 5 > 8. Skukuza is sunniest, but not by much.

Place	Durban	Cape Town	Skukuza
Hours	4,70	5,80	4,75

2A Numbers

Example
Question: Nontobela's uncle Mincifidi is a shepherd. When on holiday with him, she notices that, as the sheep go through a gate, her uncle counts them in twos. He counted 14 twos. How many sheep are there?
How to work it out: Two of a thing is sometimes called a pair. In mathematics, a number of pairs is called a multiple of 2, or an even number. The whole numbers in-between the even numbers are called odd numbers.
So 14 × 2 = 28 sheep.
This page is about even and odd numbers.

Questions
Write down your answers in your workbook or on a separate piece of paper.
Q1. Venusha's white socks were in a big pile. She counted that she had 23 socks. They were slightly different patterns and lengths. What is the largest number of pairs she could have?
Q2. Jonah's little brother Ben was arranging his toy animals in a line. He arranged them two by two. They would have been in five rows the same length, except that there was a zebra missing. Did Ben have an odd or an even number of toy animals?
Q3. Zola and Thulile each bought a 50c sweet in a café. Before they paid, they arranged their coins on the counter like this, to check.

20c 20c 10c 5c

20c 20c 10c 5c

20c 20c 10c 5c

20c 20c 10c 5c

Was the total they paid an odd number of cents, or an even number of cents?
Q4. Nomusa bought one sweet costing 10c and another costing 70c. She was charged R1,71. How did she know the total was wrong without checking the arithmetic?
Q5. Happy Valley Discount Shop sells marbles. They charge 70c for the plastic net bag, and 10c for each marble. Nolwazi chose a lot of marbles but didn't count how many. The shopkeeper's bill was R5,43. How did Nolwazi know it was wrong without knowing how many marbles there were?

2B Adding

Example
Question: Rina was tasting the chocolates in a box. She found eight hard ones, and eight soft ones. How many did she eat altogether?
How to work it out: Draw the chocolates and count them.
8 hard chocolates
8 soft chocolates
10 + 6 = 16
Write the answer: 16, on the adding square.
This page is about looking for patterns in the adding square.

Questions
Write down your answers in your workbook or on a separate piece of paper.
Q1. Anela had seven aunts and seven uncles. How many aunts and uncles did he have altogether?
Q2. Anela bought six eggs. When he got home, he found they had eight eggs in the fridge already. How many did they have now?
Q3. Anela had five aunts or uncles on his mom's side, and nine on his dad's side of the family. How many aunts and uncles did he have in total?
Q4. Bukelwa had to wait 7 minutes until her train was due, then she had to wait another 9 minutes because it was late. How long did she have to wait?
Q5. Bukelwa answered nine questions yesterday and seven more today. How many questions did she answer altogether?

Remember to write all the answers to the questions into the adding square that you have on grid.

2c Adding

Example
Question: Jack and Jill enjoyed a thrill, so their parents gave them a joint fireworks party. Jack's mom bought 15 fireworks and Jill's dad brought 23. How many did they have?
How to work it out: When it gets too hard to count up in your head, it is best to write down the numbers in columns. Write 23 below 15 and rule a line.
Copy and use the adding square.
Start from the right. Add 5 + 3 = 8 and write it below the line under the 3.
Then add 1 + 2 + 3 and write 3 below the line under the 2.
Jack and Jill had 38 fireworks.

Questions
Write down your answers in your workbook or on a separate piece of paper.
Q1. Asanda spent 74 rand in the sports shop, and then had 23 rand left. How much did she start with?
Q2. When Lerato and her dad were travelling in their car, they saw a sign saying Heidelberg was 41 kilometres north and Villiers was 22 kilometres south. How far is it from Villiers to Heidelberg?
Q3. Deepak's train leaves at 9:12 am, and the journey takes 45 minutes. When should the train arrive?
Q4. Lerato and Likhapha are going on a plane. Lerato checks in luggage at 22 kg, Likhapha's is 25 kg. Together they are allowed 48 kg. Have they got too much luggage?
Q5. The sign Lerato and her dad saw between Villiers and Heidelberg also said that Midrand was 103 kilometres north and Mooi River was 310 kilometres south. How far is it from Mooi River to Midrand?

3c Dividing

Example
Question: Mark's class charges the cost of badges completely to the children who receive them, and the school does not pay any odd rands.
How much did each child's family pay?
How to work it out: Long division to work out the rands.
This it would have been the remainder to rands.
This is the remainder in cents.

Answers to questions in Worksheet 3A
Q1. 286 ÷ 23 = 12
Q2. 884 ÷ 11 = 80
Q3. None. 336 ÷ 14 = 24 exactly.
Q4. 336 ÷ 21 = 16
Q5. 273 ÷ 21 = 13. Note that multiplication facts also form fact families which are the basis of dividing.

An example showing how to work out the answer:
Use Q4: The pearl necklaces made by the leader needed 21 pearls each. How many necklaces could he make with the 336 pearls the thieves brought him?
How many times can we divide 21 into 336? The answer is 16, because 21 is bigger than 2. We do not need to write this 0 down – instead we leave a blank.
Divide 21 into the first two numbers, 33. The answer is 1. Write this above the 3, because it is a number of tens.
Write the 21 below the 33, and take it away. What remains anything left unshared?
The answer is yes: 12 tens. Draw a line, then write the 12 below the line. Bring down the next number.
Slide the 6 down its column to the same line as the remaining 12 tens, to make 126. This is what is left to be shared out. Divide again.
Slide the 6 down its column to the same line as the remaining 12 tens, to make 126. This is what is left to be shared out. Divide again.
Write 6 at the top, above the 6, in the units column, because there are the 6 extra units given to each share.
Was there anything left unshared? The answer is no.
This is the end of the calculation. The answer is 16.
Answer: Sixteen necklaces could be made from the 336 pearls, with no pearls left over.

3A Long division

Objective
This unit should help you to use a non-calculator method for solving problems with dividing any three-digit by any two-digit number, without remainder.

Technique
Long division is the way to divide by any number bigger than a single digit. Basically it is the same as short division. We use the unlimited column below the numbers we are dividing for the working out in formal written columns. This worksheet has exact examples. The next worksheet has examples with remainders. We are now using a bigger set of multiplication tables.

Dear Parents and Educators,

As a former adult literacy coach and the father of three children, I know that learning to read isn't always easy. That's why I developed Sounds in reading — a series that uses rhyme, repetition, illustration, and phonics to help children learn to read.

The bridge to literacy is one of the most important we will ever cross. It is my hope that the Sounds in reading series will help young readers to hop, gallop, and skip from one side to the other!

Sincerely,

Brian P. Cleary
